THE ACT TO PROBERT TIPPLING HOUSES -The following is a copy of the act, as amended and signed by the Mayor, for which there is much de mand:

AN ACT to prohibit tippling houses and to suppress the sale by the small of spirituous and intoxi cating liquors. Be it enacted, &c., That from and after the first

Monday of November next, tippling houses of shops be, and the same are hereby prohibited in the city of Washington; and it shall not be lawful after the said first Monday in November for any person or persons, in any part of the city of Washington, to sell of barter any brandy, rum, gin, whisky, or other spirituous liquors, mixed or unmixed, wine, cordial lager heer, or cider, in less quantities than a jul; and ev ry person or persons who shall sell or bart. as aforesaid, shall, on conviction thereof, forfeit and pay a fine for each and every offence of twenty dollars, to be collected and applied as other fines due this Corporation; and on failure to pay said fine, or of securing the payment of the same, the person or persons so offending, shall be committed to the work house for a term not less than seven nor more than sixty days. Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That so much of the acts approved respectively June third, eighteen hundred and fifty-three, entitled "An act to license, tax, stid regulate taverns and ordinaries," and the "Act regulating the sale of spirituous and intoxi-cating liquors," as autho ized the Mayor to grant I censes for the sale or barter of the atoresaid liquors in quantities less than a pint, and all acts and parts of acts, inconsistent with the provisions of this act. be and the same are hereby repealed.

The other bill, which has passed both Boards. prohibits drinking on the premises where thus sold This laster act awaits the signature of the Mayor. We understand that the Corporation Attorney construes the meaning of tippling houses to be all that keep bars, from the highest to the lowest, and self liquor by the dram or "drink."

PRIVILEGES TO A CIRCUS COMPANY .- The question of permitting Messrs. Spalding & Rogers to occupy the public ground back of the Centre Market for their circus exhibition, was strenuously opposed by some members of the Board of Aldermen. thought that those gentlemen should seek private lots, and not let the corporation lend its counten-ance, by giving them a public place, to the immorati-ties of such exhibitions. It was said in reply that their occupying a private lot would not after the morality of the matter, so the privilege was granted. The vote on the passage of the resolution in the Common Council was—yeas, Messrs. Newman, Kelly, Plant, Donn, J. W. Davis, Killmon, Mc auley, Cross, Stewart, Smith, Bamberger, Gill, Davis, (President)—13. Nays, Messrs. C. A Davis, Barr. Walker, Duncanson, Clements, Bail, Busey, Ruff-8.

GRAND BALL AT ODD FELLOWS' HALL, NAVY YARD .- The Genevieve Club, so well known last winter for its fine balls, have another to-morrow evening in the splendid saloon of the Odd Fellows' Hall. near the Navy Yard. I hose excellent singers, who de lighted crowds on the past summer excursions, the Washington Minstrels, are to lend their valuable aid. Wilson's favorite e tillon band is to furn h the music, and the caterers are selected with an eye to the very best accommodations. The names of Messrs. J. H. Hutchinson, Geo. W. Keilholtz, R. T. Talbert, W. A. Bradley, and C. F. Crump, for the committee of arrangements; and Messrs. J. W. Grainger, J. C. Brooks, and W. Kemp, for fleor managers, is a sure guarantee that nothing will be

TH OF AN ECCENERIC INDIVIDUAL.-Yester morning, a person named B. bullman Balch died suddenly in the house occupied by a man named Simms as a barber, on 7th street, which had been for some time past the lodging place of the deceased. On Monday afternoon, he complained of an aff ction of the bowels, but this morning arose, walked out, and said he was better. He went to his room where, in a short time, he was found, life extinct The deceased was, originally, from Boston, and we believe a nephew of the Rev. Mr. Balch, of the Baptist Charch, Georgetown. He was a man of education and talents, and had written several admirable poems. He was remarkable for his eccentricities. At the time of his death, he was engaged in cutting stencil plates for marking boxes and parcels, and we believe he also attended to securing small claims from Government.

MASTER BAKERS .- On Saturday evening last the master basers of this city met together and formed an association for the purpose of maintaining their rights against what they consider the encroachments of the corporation. They adopted a constitution, and elected the following gentlemen as officers of the society: Presdent, A. Noer; Vice President, C. W. Havenner; Secretary, John P. Havenner; Treasurer, C. Hager. We learn that they have fully termined to test the law of the corporation regulating the weight of bread, and for that purpose have employed a lawyer and are raising funds to carry on the suit. They are satisfied that the law cannot stand the test in the circuit court.

. ANGEL GABRIEL RELEASED .- This remarkable person, who has been disturbing our larger Northern cities for a long time past, was captured, a few evenings since, by Captain Birch, of the Auxiliary Guard. The captain listened at entively to all the Angel had to say, and then sent him to jail. This morning, some one took pity on him, and offered bail, which was accepted, and Gabriel was released. He did not remain many moments in Washington after he was discharged from prison. It is more than likely he will renew his discourses in Balti-

HEALTH OF WASHINGTON AND GEORGETOWN .-Perceiving rumors of the existence of cholers in the Distri t of Columbia in distant papers, we have to say that they are one and all exaggerations. A car-go of bad oysters a day or two since occa-ioned a few violent cases of diarrhosa in Georgetown, one or two of which resulted fatally. A portion of the same cargo was sold in this city, producing a like effect, and one or two perso s have died with something the cholera symptoms, after eating those oys-ters. Up to mue o'clock this morning, no case of cholera had been reported to the Board of Health, whose Provident assured us that he had seen nor sheard porbing to justify the idea that there is sparodic cholen among ue.

WYEN ALIVE-The great venutionist had growded saloon last evening a: Odd Fellows' Balk and offers a bil: for this evening which surpasses any he has yet offered. An evening of rich amuse ment may se spent by visiting Wyman.

DISCONTENT .- Just about the most discontented et of mortels we ever saw, are more or less of our fellow-citizens who, being engaged in the business of retailing fruits, vegetables, &c., in the markets of Washington, or in that of keeping taverns and restaurants, were conspicuous for their exertions to seat in office the present majority of both Washington Council Boards. They are positively heart-sickmany of them-disconsolate beyo d the comprehension of those who do not realize in their own pockets the prospective results of the anti-dram and huckstering regulation laws just passed by the Coungils, the latter having been already approved by the

THE BALL OF THE 1. F. C .- The Old I. F. C." Club had a truly fine ball, nearly all the other clubs being present, and some of them, we learn, suffered from the paine that cupid's arrows inflicted. Such is the natural consequence of a trip on the light fantastic toe with beautiful girls, and there were elenty there, and no champagne about it.

SCHOOL APPROPRIATIONS .- The appropriation hill passed by the Board of Common Council on Monday night, for contingent expenses for the Publie Schools, embracing fuel, rent, &c., are thus sub-

First District, $1,535, Second District, $1,000; Third District, $620; Fourth District, $559. For the navment of the salary of the Secretary of the Board of Trustees, $509; Treasurer $200; other expenses, $310—the whole amount being $4,715.

HUCKSTERS LICENSED .- We understand that there are over one hundred and sixty hucksters licensed in this city. Previously to the passage of the new act to regulate buckstering, the fee for a license was $15, the amount is now in teased to $25 for each. If the bill should finally pass, and all should renew their licenses according to the act of the Councils, the increase will be over sixteen DIME SAVINGS BANK .- The dime savings bank of Baltimore has just gone into operation, and so far works well. Children can in this institution learn the importance of saving their money, and when they come to be of age may have a snug little sum to begin the world with. Can there not be such a bank established in Washington? It would work inestimable benefits to the rising generation.

THE NEW MARKET .- A number of gentlemen were this morning examining the present location of the Centre Market; they were well acquainted with the business they were about, and came to the conclusion that a market occupying the entire square would afford gangways and stallroom for all who deal there. The market house, as it is a very poor affair, hardly affording shelter from the rain.

OBITUARY .- It is seldom that we are called upon to record a parting tribute of respect to the memory of a triend with more sincerity than we now do to that of Dr. Jonathan E. Jackson, of Millwood. Va. who died at Waco Villa e, McClellan Co., Texas, on the 29th July last, after a few days illness, of congestion of the brain. Dr. Jackson graduated at Princeton College in year 1849, and received his medical degree at the University of Pennsylvania in 1852. He had located himself in Texas, for the practice of his profession. Possessed of a disposition singularly gentle, of a degree of professional skill far beyond his years, and of the rare faculty of attaching others personsonally to him, he gave promise of great future use fulness to the community where he had fixed his not coptent with merely observing syar ptoms and pre scribing for them, actually interest themselves as to the manner in which the patient is taken care of. He frequently devoted himself, when his time allowed it, to the immediate personal supervision of the put ent, watching the change of symptom-, modifying the temedies to suit such changes, and comforting him with his presence and sympathy. His pre-eminent characteristic was kindness of His near relatives and friends may console thems lves with the assurance that he has departed from the scenes of earth with the respect and admit ration of all who knew him.
